

CAREER SUMMARY

I'm a metering and data analytics professional with a strong background in energy meter testing, and MRBD operations. Over the years, I've worked on everything from detecting tampering and energy theft to managing meter installations, analyzing consumption data, and working with CRM systems. I enjoy problem-solving and making sense of data to improve systems and customer satisfaction.

I have completed the Google Data Analytics Professional Certificate, which gave me practical experience with tools like Excel, SQL, and R. It also sharpened my skills in cleaning and visualizing data, drawing insights, and supporting better decision-making. I'm someone who's always curious, eager to learn, and committed to doing my best work—whether on-site, in the lab, or in front of a spreadsheet.
